In order to be a member of the All-State Band, you must:

- Be a member, in good standing, of your school band.
- Practice and diligently prepare your part. All-State rehearsals are not for you to learn your part. Should you come to rehearsal without being prepared, you will be removed from the ensemble.
- Attend and participate in all rehearsals for the full time. Please don't ask to arrive late, leave early or miss any rehearsal time. No exceptions.
- Be early. This means arriving early, warming up and being ready to go before rehearsal begins. Should you arrive late for any portion of any rehearsal, you will be moved to the end of your section. If it happens again, you will be removed from the ensemble.
- Be prepared for rehearsal with your music and a pencil. Don't ask for extra copies. In most cases, we don't have any.
- Pay attention in rehearsal. It is the guest conductor's discretion to have you removed from the ensemble if you are not paying attention or causing a disturbance.
- Attend and participate in the performance. Duh.
- Turn in your All-State music at the end of the performance.

These rules may seem harsh, but this is an All-State ensemble.

There are numerous students who would be more than happy to take your place.

I agree to follow the rules listed above and will faithfully execute my duties as a member of the 2012 Utah All-State Band. I understand that any infraction will result in my being removed from the ensemble, without refund of my All-State Band participation fee.
