UMEA/NBA Marching Band Clinic

What: This is to announce the third annual one day marching clinic sponsored by the Utah Music Educators Association and the National Band Association for all students and directors interested in receiving high level instruction on marching technique, Individual instrument technique, Drum-line/Pit instruction, Leadership skills, Drum Major instruction, Color Guard instruction, etc. The day will end with a short demonstration for parents of the skills learned during the day. The clinic received rave reviews from last years participants and several directors are planning on bringing their entire band!

Where: This one day clinic will be held at American Fork H.S.

When: Saturday May 22. The clinic will start at 8 am and finish at 5. (The registration form says 6 but we will be concluding at 5) Lunch will be provided.

How Much? Pre-registration by May 7th: $15 per student. This will include lunch and a t-shirt.
After May 7th: $20 and no t-shirt

Clinicians: The following Utah directors have also accepted invitations to serve as clinicians:

Jermie Arnold – Drum Majors

Mike Huestis – Drumline

Heath Wolf - Front Percussion

Kevin Fallon, – M&M and Brass Arcs

Nate Seamons - M&M and Brass Arcs

Steve Hendricks – Leadership & Trombone

Christine Wolf – Woodwind Arc

Tiffany Miller– Color Guard

Daralyn Zabriski – Color Guard

Scott Lind – Low Brass

Michelle Fluckiger – Flute

Angela Myers – Clarinet

? – Saxophone, Bass Clarinet

Jared Herald – Trumpet

Sonja Reynolds – Mellophone

Brek Mangelsen – Baritone

Jason Petrovich – Sousaphone

John Miller – Camp Director

Why? We feel this one day clinic will help jump-start our Utah programs as they start the summer season as well as provide a opportunity for students and directors to network and to create a positive spirit of unity among the Utah bands.

How do we register? See the attached registration form. We would prefer that students register as a band, pay their schools then the director can send one check and a registration form to the clinic. Individual students may register separately if desired. In order to plan for t-shirts and meals we need final student registration by May 7th. Make all checks payable to UMEA and mail all registration and fees to:
